U.N. Council Due To Set Up Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Western sources said today the U.N. Security Council probably will be called into session early next week to work out arrangements for a summit meeting here. These quarters said they have been given the definite impression that the Soviet Union will accept President Eisenhower's reported proposal that such details as time, place and participants be settled through U.N. channels.

Israel Said Cause Of Mideast Fuss

LONDON (AP) — The ousted Iraqi minister to Britain charged today the "creation of the synthetic state of Israel by the Western Powers" was the sole cause of Middle East troubles. Tarik Al Askari was running the embassy here at the time of the revolt.

He told a news conference the Western Powers "must realize that the tragedy of the creation of the synthetic state of Israel, entailing as it did the eviction of a million Arabs from their homes is the sole cause of all the present human suffering and misery in the Middle East today."

Al Askari is the nephew of the slain Premier Nuri Said.

Members of the 11-nation Council are keeping in close touch with the East-West exchanges and are ready to meet quickly if Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev agrees to this procedure.

Secret consultations are going on now to settle the thorny issue of Iraqi representation on the Council in advance of the summit meeting.

Qualified sources predicted today the outcome would be the seating of a representative of the new revolutionary regime on the 11-nation Council.

U.N. diplomats are anxious to avoid any East-West ruckus the very outset of a summit meeting. This could happen if the Council got bogged down in an argument over Iraqi representation.

Up to now the Council has not decided whether Hashim Jawad, here to represent the revolutionary regime, should take the place of Abdul Majid Abbas, who has been occupying Iraq's seat. Abbas' credentials were signed by Fadhil Jamali, former foreign minister now in jail in Baghdad.

If the revolutionary regime is recognized, the representative at the summit level would be the Premier, Brig Gen. Abdel Karim Kassem.

Weather Cuts Fair Crowd; Vote Today

The Fair moved into the home stretch Friday, with rain and threat of rain continuing the cut deeply into attendance.

Although the ground was sufficiently firm to permit parking almost anywhere Friday, the gray clouds overhead gave ticket-sellers a slow start.

A light sprinkle about noon did nothing to speed up the gate, although it did not even threaten the afternoon race program.

By 1 p. m. the clouds had lightened in the West — but were still there. Post time for the first race was not until 2 p. m.; so, there was no hurry to get into the grandstand.

The weather — and the soft ground — kept many Fairgoers away Thursday.

Attendance was lagging far behind that of last year.

and the Midwestern) Hayride show in front of the grandstand were expected to bring out the biggest crowd of 1958 Friday night — provided there is no more rain.

Nonunion Pews Causing Fuss

NLRB in Rare Dither Over Church Squabble

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everybody concerned is appealing the case of the nonunion church pews.

The five-man National Labor Relations Board itself must decide whether an examiner's findings were just right, too hard or too soft.

The case involves complaints by the Endicott Church Furniture Co., Warsaw, Ind., that the Carpenters' Union has boycotted installation of Endicott-made pews in churches around Chicago, Minneapolis, New York and Detroit.

The union lost an NLRB bargaining rights election held in March 1956 among the 60 employees of the Endicott firm.

The company contends the union since then has been trying to stop churches from installing Endicott pews, as a means of forcing Endicott to capitulate and put its workers under union contract.

An NLRB trial examiner, C. W. Whittemore, has ruled there was insufficient evidence at a series of hearings to support these charges.

But Whittemore did find that in the case of the Nassau Baptist Church, East Williston, N.Y., the union illegally persuaded union workmen to go on strike to stop nonunion Endicott workers from installing pews.

In that instance, the pastor, the Rev. Albert P. Seibert, got the nonunion Endicott men to return to Indiana and had his parishioners finish installing the pews.

The Endicott firm and the general counsel of the NLRB have appealed to the board, contending that examiner Whittemore went too light on the union. The Carpenters say Whittemore was wrong as to his one finding of illegality concerning the East Williston, N.Y., church strike.

The board hasn't said when it will act.

Striking Dairy Farmers Told To Stop Picketing Plants

CLEVELAND (AP) — Striking dairy farmers today were ordered to stop picketing National Dairy Products Corp. plants and to halt interference with the company's milk supply.

Cuyahoga Common Pleas Judge Donald J. Lybarger, who ruled no labor dispute exists, issued a restraining order against the striking Ohio Dairy Farmers Bargaining Assn.

Only representatives of National Dairy Products, distributor of Sealtest milk, were present for today's hearing.

Commented Judge Lybarger: "It's a terrible waste to pour good milk into the ground. There is always a peaceful way to negotiate prices."

At a farm near Spencer, 25 miles southwest of here, a carload of men stopped a pickup truck Thursday and dumped its milk cargo into a ditch.

At several other locations in Lorain County, milk trucks were blocked in farm driveways by tractors that had been put out of commission.

The pickup truck was headed for the National Dairy Sealtest plant here, and the dairy promptly requested an injunction. The hearing was set for Judge Donald J. Lybarger's court.

The strike was called Thursday by the Ohio Dairy Farmers Bargaining Assn., which is separate from the milk producers' federation or cooperatives, although it claims some duplicate memberships. Strongest in Ashtabula and Portage counties, it also has members in Cuyahoga, Lake, Lorain, Medina, Summit, Stark, and Mahoning counties.

Teen-Age Girls Man Rebel Posts

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — The machine guns chattered, bullets smacked against the wall and heavy dynamite blasts rumbled in and around Basta, the rebel-held hilltop section of Beirut.

Three teen-age Lebanese girls manned posts in the barricades beside the men.

They have had only two weeks basic training but they carry arms and are on duty 18 hours a day. Why?

"Because (President Camille) Chamoun is unjust to the Lebanese people and because he is an aggressor," said brown-eyed Samira Sunno. She added "so are you Americans. What are you doing in Lebanon supporting an unjust man?"

One of her companions, Zeynab Masri, was asked why she fought. "I give you two reasons: first because I love my country and I feel I am defending it; second to set an example for the men."

Zeynab Masri is 16. So is the third girl, Houda Ajouz.

They are among at least 50 women and girls being trained for military duty by the rebels. They said they thought of joining the Popular Resistance Movement as they call it, when the rebellion first began in Lebanon nearly three months ago.

Two weeks ago they volunteered. Now they're in uniform. Two have not finished high school. Samira Sunno had completed her first training as a nurse.

The girls are deadly serious. Starting at 6 a.m. they get two hours training, handling weapons. Then they work in the rebels' clean but under-equipped hospital.

At sundown they go into their respective barricade positions in the Basta. They remain until midnight.

Have they come under fire? They burst into laughter. "Of course. There's almost always some firing."

Have they ever killed a man? Laughter evaporated.

There was a moment of silence. Then Houda Ajouz, patting a .22 caliber pistol in a hip holster, said, "If they attack of course I will try to kill them."

She's an orphan who lives with her brothers.

Masri's father is a prosperous motion picture distributor. Sunno is the daughter of a vegetable merchant.

You ask the three girls if they realize they can get killed, even in minor skirmishes.

"It's better to die fighting than do nothing at a time like this," Samira Sunno said.

Dayton Boy's Temperature Tops 110

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Donald Kneel, 13, lies in a semi-coma on a cooling bed at Good Samaritan Hospital. His face is inflamed and swollen. His lips and mouth are so parched he is unable to talk.

If the boy lives he will make medical history.

He was admitted Wednesday morning with a fever so high doctors were unable to measure it. A thermometer placed in his mouth rose to 110 degrees, as high as it would go. The fever probably was higher.

Attending physicians immediately packed the boy in ice. They said the fever was caused by a very rare type blood clot called cavernous sinus thrombosis. Before the advent of antibiotic drugs it was almost always fatal.

After 24 hours in an ice pack the boy's fever was reduced to 105 degrees and then to 103. Physicians at Good Samaritan could not recall any case of a temperature as high as that recorded by Donald Kneel.

The boy's father, Lowell Kneel of nearby Phillipsburg, said Donald complained of a small bump on the back of his head Sunday. His parents administered ice packs and said he seemed all right Monday and Tuesday.

But Kneel said when he returned from his job as a taxicab driver, Wednesday morning his son's face was terribly swollen and distorted. They rushed him to the hospital.

Jurors Find Rapist Guilty

Sentence Withheld Pending Examination

Joseph Earl Gardner, 27, convicted Thursday afternoon by a Common Pleas Court jury of raping his 10-year-old stepdaughter, was taken to the Lima State Hospital Friday morning for an observation period of not more than 60 days.

Judge John P. Case ordered Gardner's commitment as required by law after the jury returned its guilty verdict at 4:53 p. m. The case had been presented to the trial panel 65 minutes earlier.

Sentence will not be imposed until state hospital psychiatrists make a complete report. Gardner faces possible life imprisonment for his crime.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Hays took him to Lima.

A TOTAL of 12 witnesses testified during the trial which opened Wednesday morning. Among them were the little girl herself and the defendant.

Gardner, who had been in jail in default of $50,000 bond since his indictment by a grand jury, did not change expression when the verdict was read. He had been calm and impassive throughout the trial.

His wife, the mother of the 10-year-old child prosecuting witness, has brought suit for divorce and now lives in Middletown.

Members of the jury were: Mrs. Alfred Linniger, Fay W. Shubert, Mrs. Thurman Sheppard, Mrs. Opal Callender, Mrs. Max Lawrence, Mrs. Homer Flint, Russell Douglass, Joe Elliott, Mrs. J. H. Persinger, Mrs. Louis Storey, Miss Blanche Roberts and Thurman Coulter.

Prosecutor Rollo M. Marchant presented the state's case. William A. Lovell represented the defendant by appointment of the court.

News Briefs

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — Specially equipped ships and planes continued searching the Atlantic today but hope dimmed that Wickie the space mouse would be recovered inside a nose cone after an intercontinental range flight.

The tiny white mouse was enclosed in the nose cone of a Thor-Able rocket that streaked 6,000 miles through space Wednesday.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — A U.S. Navy spokesman today said that no American planes have been shot down by anti-aircraft fire from Syria.

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Miss U. S. A. and 14 foreign beauties remained today in the contest for the throne of Miss Universe.

Thirty-five girls held the same hopes Thursday night. But judges slashed the field, and 20 girls, some weeping bitterly, were dropped from the beauty pageant.

Summit Plans Left to U. N.

U. S. Britain Agree On Anti-Red Strategy

LONDON (AP) — The United States and Britain agreed today to tell the impatient Soviet Union that all arrangements for U.N. summit talks should be made by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, diplomats reported.

As the Soviet press demanded the West agree to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's plans for a summit meeting without delay, diplomats made clear the West is unwilling to let him call all the signals.

Diplomats reported President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Macmillan and very likely Premier de Gaulle will tell Khrushchev before Sunday that:

1. There is absolutely no chance of summit talks on the Middle East crisis beginning Monday, as Moscow suggested;

2. They are ready to attend a top-level conference in New York as soon as it can be arranged to the convenience of the countries and statesmen concerned; and

3. Hammarskjöld should be authorized to consult immediately with the permanent delegates of the interested powers on such matters as starting day, composition of the conference, rules of procedure and so on.

The Western leaders will propose no firm dates but it is known they consider Aug. 8 the earliest possible time, with Aug. 11 possibly the latest.

Informants said Western leaders are determined to resist Khrushchev's rush tactics. They feel the rush tactics are intended to give an exaggerated impression of the peril of war.

The Western proposal that all summit arrangements be left to Hammarskjöld has several advantages in the U.S. and British view.

It would make clear the summit conference is an operation of the United Nations and would make more correspondence with Moscow on details unnecessary.

British officials reported the 15 Atlantic Allies have dropped plans for a special meeting of foreign ministers in Paris next week to coordinate policies on summit talks. It was decided the NATO Council can handle the situation.

7 of Family Perish in Flash Flood

SPENCER, W. Va. (AP) — Seven members of the family of John Willoughby, about 45, perished in a flash flood which swept away their farm home on Granny's Creek Thursday night.

Funeral home attendants here said the victims were Willoughby's wife and six children, four girls and two boys.

Willoughby himself was the only member of the family to survive. The family lived near Newton, about 30 miles southeast of Spencer, the county seat of Roane County. The location is about 40 miles from Charleston.

There were conflicting reports about Willoughby's escape. He was under sedation at a hospital here. The sheriff's office said it understood he was away at work at the time. Other reports quoted Willoughby as the next thing he remembered was clinging to a tree. He managed to swim out of the torrent.

Four bodies, those of Mrs. Willoughby and three of the children, had arrived at a funeral home. The other three were still being sought.

Ambulance driver Woody Piercy said state troopers, road commission workers and volunteers had to carry the bodies for more than a mile to reach his ambulance on a passable road.

Access to the area had been cut off by the flood waters, which swept away two bridges on country roads.

The creek, a normally placid mountain stream, is only about six miles long. It flows into Sandy Creek, which in turn empties into the Elk River near Clendenin.

To Shun Khrush

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner sees no reason to play host if Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev comes here for a summit conference.

"The hosts will be the federal government and the United Nations," Wagner said, "and we have nothing to do with it."

Sam Forsythe's Angus Grand Champion Steer

An 840 pound Angus steer, exhibited by Sam Forsythe, won the grand championship over all breeds in the Junior Fair Steer Show Thursday afternoon.

The reserve grand championship over all breeds, a Hereford, was shown by Jerry Hoppes.

A total of 81 steers were in the show, the most in recent years. There were 41 Herefords, 29 Angus and 11 Shorthorns. Judges of the show were Tom Merritt of Ohio State University and George Whitlock of Swift & Co., Columbus.

Forsythe, 12, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Forsythe, Route 6, Washington C. H. He is a member of the Wayne Progressive Farmers. Hoppes, 16, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoppes, Route 1, Greenfield. He is also a member of the Wayne Progressive Farmers.

Forsythe also had the grand champion Angus. His sister, Linda, showed the reserve champion Angus. The grand champion Hereford was shown by Hoppes and the reserve champion Hereford was shown by Jay Scott.

Hoppes had a field day as he also had the grand champion Shorthorn. Roger Sollars showed the reserve champion Shorthorn.

In the "rate of gain" contest, first place was taken by Bob Bell. His Angus steer gained 2.42 pounds per day since January 24. Second was Tom Lindsey whose Hereford steer gained 2.37 pounds per day.

Other winners, and the amount their steers gained since January 24, are: Third, Nancy Owens, 2.29; fourth, Tom Lindsey, 2.28; and fifth, Roger Sollars, 2.2. Nancy and Tom had Herefords and Roger had a Shorthorn.

Jack Weiss, manager of Son's Bar, was charged with assault by Albert Mathews, owner of Red's Drive-In Route 35 south, Thursday. Later in the day Mathews was charged by Weiss with disturbing the peace.

Mathews said Weiss struck him. Weiss said Mathews disturbed the peace by abusive language and threatened to provoke a quarrel with him.

The charges grew out of an incident at Son's Bar on Court St. Wednesday night. Both men have been released on bond to appear in Municipal Court Monday.

Cloudburst Drowns Mt. Sterling Area

MT. STERLING — An estimated 3.4 inches of rain hit this community Thursday afternoon in about 45 minutes.

There was little wind or lighting, but the blinding rain lasted about an hour, starting at 4 p. m. The 3.4 inches is a record for the community causing streets never flooded before to overflow. Berms were badly washed on the CCC Highway northeast of town.

Officials said electricity was off for 25 minutes at the beginning of the storm.

Jeffersonville earlier Thursday got a thunderstorm that dumped an estimated two inches of rain on the area, flooding several roads. The CCC Highway through Sabina was flooded Thursday afternoon during a hard two-hour rain that started about 1 p. m.

Lady Sherlock Labels Case 'Elementary'

LONDON (AP) — Middle-aged Matilda Higgins doffed her housewife's apron and set up as a private eye when somebody stole her husband's car.

She cracked the case before professional sleuths had time to reach for a magnifying glass.

It took her just half an hour to track down the car, abandoned not far from the Higgins' suburban home. A quick check showed the spare wheel was missing, along with the tools and seat covers.

For the next few days Matilda prowled the neighborhood, picking up gossip. After a while she heard dealer John Verby had some seat covers for sale.

Matilda recognized them right off. She offered to buy them and asked Verby to come to her house to pick up the cash.

The police were there when Verby arrived.

He was jailed for two years Thursday.

"I suppose I was quite a Sherlock Holmes," reflected Matilda. "But it was elementary once I was on the trail."

Two Men Bound To Grand Jury

Two men were bound to the grand jury and hearing for two other men charged with robbery was continued by Municipal Court Judge Max G. Dice Friday.

Eddie Morgan, Jr., 18, of Troy, who gave his name Thursday as Michael Lee Ryan, of Sacramento, Calif., to keep the record of his arrest from relatives, waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the next grand jury. He is charged with assault to rob Mrs. Kathryn Jones, Columbus, on a downtown street Wednesday night.

He was finally captured by two local youths after a downtown chase. Morgan, who had been working with the Fair as a stable boy is confined to county jail. His bond is $2,000.

Hubert Beford Rumer, 22, of 613 Fourth St., also waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the next session of the grand jury. His bond, set at $3,000 was furnished by his family. Rumer is charged with breaking and entering the home of Dr. Charles Pfersick 608 Park Dr. Wednesday night.

He was captured after a chase through a cornfield by Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson.

PRELIMINARY HEARING for two men charged with robbery was continued until Tuesday after a number of witnesses were called Friday.

They are charged with robbery of Vepham Wiseman, Route 5, in a north side parking lot Wednesday. Both have been released to the custody of the Air Force until Tuesday.

Ike's OK Awaited On Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The big battle over defense reorganization is over. Only President Eisenhower's signature is needed to put it in effect.

Congress completed action on the once controversial issue Thursday when both House and Senate quickly passed a compromise reorganization bill by voice vote.

Eisenhower is expected to give his quick approval. He said he is satisfied with the bill, which gives him most of the authority he sought to reorganize the nation's complex and sprawling defense forces and to streamline the chain of command.

Deputy Sheriff-Jailer Placed on Probation

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Louis Fritz, 51, a deputy sheriff and jailer here more than 15 years, was placed on probation for five years Thursday by Common Pleas Judge Fred B. Cramer. He had been charged with embezzling about $8,200 in fines and costs paid at the jail from 1951-57.

Industrials Push Stock Prices Up

NEW YORK (AP)—Strength in industrials pushed the stock market once again into new high ground for the year in active trading today. Leading issues rose fractions to about 2 points.

The market was higher from the start and the ticker tape fell behind for nine minutes.

American Motors, which topped the most-active list Thursday on news of its sharp boost in earnings, was the feature again today, advancing a point to a new high before trimming its gain.

Chemicals, steels, motors, rubbers, aircrafts, electronics and airlines rose. Utilities and rails were a bit ahead in average.

The overall news included a statement by Dr. Gabriel Hauge, retiring economic aide to President Eisenhower, that the business recession has ended.

Chrysler kept major fractional gain following news that it had greatly reduced its first quarter loss and was paying another 25-cent dividend.

Du Pont and Goodrich were ahead about two apiece. Gains of more than a point were posted for Air Reduction and International Paper. Ahead about a point were Ford, Caterpillar, Douglas Aircraft, Smith-Kline-French and International Nickel.

American Telephone rose a fraction to a new '58 high then traded about unchanged.

Western Union hit a new high and was up a good fraction. U.S. government bonds were steady to slightly higher.

Canadians Bound To Grand Jury

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two Canadians arrested in East Liverpool, Ohio, are held here for the federal grand jury, charged with passing crude counterfeits of U.S. $20 bills. Anthony Iata, 37, and Matthew Joseph Campbell, 29, both of Toronto, were placed under $5,000 bond each Thursday by U.S. Commissioner William Dornan in Youngstown.

A treasury agent said the currency was poorly made. It was the wrong color, and printed on paper that was too heavy. All the bills bore the same serial number. They began turning up in New York City about a year ago.

Ray D. Warner Named FHA Committeeman

Ray D. Warner, Route 6, Washington C. H., has been appointed as a member of the Fayette County Farmers Home Administration Committee, Grady M. Rhodes, the agency's county supervisor, announced this week.

The other two members serving with Warner are Myron L. Smith and Harry Silcott. Warner succeeds Glenn L. Smith whose three-year term expired this year.

Each agricultural county in Ohio has a three-year member committee to work with the county supervisor to make the best possible local use of the agency's farm credit service program. The committee determines the eligibility of applicants for all types of Farmers Home Administration loans, and determines the suitability and fair and reasonable values of farms to be taken as security for real estate loans. It also reviews borrowers' progress as they pay off their FHA loans by means of improved farming and turn to banks and other lenders for the credit they need.

THE COMMITTEE elected Myron L. Smith as its chairman at its first meeting.

The Farmers Home Administration is an agency in the U. S. Department of Agriculture which supplies long-term credit to farmers to buy or improve their farms, establish suitable soil and water conservation measures, and build or repair farm houses or other essential farm buildings.

It has intermediate- or short-term credit for farm operations or to meet emergency needs. The agency does not compete with other lenders in the farm credit field. As a part of its credit service, it supplies farm and home management aids and advice.

Nearly Every American Is A Capitalist

It is to be wondered how many people here in Fayette County, ever have paused to think of the number of individuals in our community who actually are capitalists in one form or another.

Perhaps a majority of families in the United States are capitalists of the same type, some large, some small.

This very fact caused one Russian government representative in New York to complain because this is not the Russian idea of how the general public should be allowed to act. He indicated a thought that the people should be responsible only to the government in power as to what they are permitted to do.

He was quoted as saying, "These United States are no good. No good for Russia. The trouble with these United States is their capitalists—they all have a proletarian background. And, even worse, the trouble with these United States is with the proletariat—every last one of them has capitalistic ambitions."

The Kremlin spokesman urged workers of the world to unite against those workers of American industry who have nothing to lose but their cars, homes, comfortable clothes, three square meals a day, and such old-fashioned American ideals as "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Americans are capitalists. Twenty-five million of our people own their own homes and over 100 million hold insurance policies. More than 21 million Americans own savings accounts while nearly 9 million are shareholders of industry and business.

This is a fact, not a figure of speech, and worthy of thought.

Of all the misunderstandings about our business system perhaps the most widespread is the belief that industry pays out more than a dollar of dividends for every dollar it pays out in wages.

Yet the U. S. Department of Commerce reported that for every dollar paid out to investors last year, between 19 and 20 dollars went to wage and salary earners.

The people who put their savings in a business must put in about $17,000 for tools, machinery and buildings for every man and woman employed. If the business fails, they lose their money. That's the risk they take. If the business makes a profit, they get one dollar while the employee gets nineteen.

Learning the facts about this 19-to-1 split, the chances are people will say "Fair enough—let's all work together and increase both shares."

It's a good time to remember that "those whose money is in business" includes everyone who has a bank deposit, holds an insurance policy, stocks or bonds, or who owns a home. Keep in mind, too, that every man on the job and every man with savings invested in business has need to protect that job and those investments.

Through savings and investment for profit we help to make jobs for other people—for our neighbors and for our children when they become job seekers.

New TV Hero--6 Inches Tall

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—As if everybody didn't feel small enough already, we will be asked this autumn to look up to a hero only six inches tall.

He is Mel Hunter, star of "World of Giants," a new television series, and a lot of big money is riding on his tiny but muscular frame in one of the top duels of the 1958-59 video season.

CBS is gambling four million dollars that Little Mel will be able to untrack "Wagon Train," the highly rated program that sets out every Wednesday night from the rival trading post run by Sheriff Bob Sarnoff of NBC.

It is to be a no-holds-barred contest for audience favor between the fantastic and the horse opera.

Who is this rash unknown, Mel Hunter, who has risen to challenge the long reign of the Western?

He is the brainchild of John Ziv and Richard Dorso.

Mel is a strapping 6-foot secret agent who is exposed to rays from a deadly enemy missile fuel behind the Iron Curtain. His molecular system is affected, and he shrinks until he is only half a foot tall.

Instead of asking waivers on him or peddling him to a circus, Mel's superiors in a government department known only as "the Bureau" decide to keep him on the job as a spy hunter.

The fact they now have a 6-inch agent is, of course, the bureau's top secret. He goes on his missions in a briefcase carried by his buddy, Bill Winters. The briefcase has air vents and contains an airplane type seat in which miniature Mel straps himself for comfort.

Because of his small size, everything that happens to Mel is a matter of life or death to him," said Dorso.

"Two of his biggest problems in the pilot show are how to outwit a hungry cat and how to get a telephone off the hook so he can call the Bureau."

"The Federal Bureau of Investigation screened the series and approved it," Dorso said, "as long as Mel wasn't identified as an FBI agent."

Dorso believes "the little man" will become the hero of the year to both kids and grownups.

"There is no ceiling to this," he said. "We think it will go right through the roof. We're going for the long haul."

"This is going to be the year of the fantastic in television. On there'll be a rash of fantasies—a real rash of them. All kinds of new backgrounds and different heroes—maybe even a two-headed hero from another planet."

They Don't Want To Know

By George Sokolsky

Swifter and more general means of communications do not necessarily mean better and more complete understanding.

One would have imagined that that would always have been recognized, for otherwise how can it be explained that those who live under one roof, husband and wife, father and son, mother and sister, fail to understand each other; in fact, often grow apart as the years pass?

Despite all the effort that has been put into achieving a more effective exchange of views between the United States and Soviet Russia, very little progress has been made. I quote a paragraph from "Izvestia," the official government newspaper of Soviet Russia, as an example of total misunderstanding:

"The President's explanation... exaggerates the role of the United States in the development of historical events. This has obvious purpose, but to justify the current rearmament of the United States and those military measures which it is taking in all parts of the world on the pretext of insuring peace."

"This wrong idea about the exceptional role of the United States in the shaping of world events, which attempts to ignore the interest of other states, is used as the basis for the U. S. President's reply."

For instance, the stubborn raising by the President of the question of the social systems in the European people's democracies, and even in the Soviet Union, is dictated precisely by such an idea.

The time has come to realize that the question of the existence of socialist countries was decided by history long ago, and is not 'subject' to the American monopolies, which, as consolation, still appear to consider themselves all-powerful...."

The very language of this paragraph is confusing to an American.

Diet and Health Don't Let Physician Make These Mistakes

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

MANY of you, I'm sure, have heard of the seven danger signals of cancer. I've advised you about their importance time and again.

Now let's talk about another series of seven—what the American Cancer Society terms "The Seven Tragic Diagnostic Mistakes."

While primarily rules for doctors to follow in treating patients, I think these seven points should also be called to the attention of the general public.

Ask for Explanation

If you know where a doctor is most likely to slip up on one or more of the signals, you might ask him to explain to you about some of these precautions.

Unfortunately, doctors sometimes may fail to make an early diagnosis of intra-oral cancer because they assume on your first visit that a lesion merely may be a "canker sore." A simple biopsy of the lesion will give conclusive evidence whether it is malignant or benign.

Failure to diagnose carcinoma of the breast might occur because the physician at first believes the lump is a benign lesion such as fat necrosis or inflammation.

Don't Take Chances

I want to emphasize that any lump in the breast must be assumed to be malignant until thorough investigation proves otherwise. That is why you should go to your doctor early. Most lumps, fortunately, are not malignant, but you can't afford to take a chance.

The Cancer Society also warns that to treat a patient with the conviction that his symptoms are due to a duodenal or benign gastric ulcer without radiologic or laboratory evidence of the disease is to miss a possible cancer.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

WILLIE MAYES, San Francisco's great ball hawk, had his very first meeting with the immortal Tyrus Raymond Cobb recently, according to Max Kase. Cobb grinned, "Willie, I bet you don't know who I am."

"You got me," admitted Willie, "who are you?" Cobb coughed nervously and said, "I'll give you a clue. My first name is Ty."

Willie concluded the interview with "That's nice. Glad to meet you, Mr. Ty."

Discovered in Canarsie: the most cautious mother of the month. Her kid asked, "Can I go outside and watch the solar eclipse?" "Okay," she conceded grudgingly, "but don't stand too close."

Doctor Seligman's new secretary, copying notes he had written hastily at the scene of a riot, came to "Shot in the lumbar region." After a moment's hesitation she typed, "Shot in the woods."

Wildlife Supervisor Quits after Hassle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—William Farley, ousted recently from his $6,000-a-year job as law enforcement supervisor for the Lake Erie area of the Ohio Wildlife Division, resigned Thursday. He said his future would be placed in doubt if he fought the removal order. Farley was accused of improper supervision of employees under him, misuse of gasoline coupons and making false reports, among other things.

WASHINGTON (AP)—This has been an almost weird seven months in high diplomacy. During most of that time—until now—it would have been hard to find anyone willing to bet a dime on a summit conference in 1958.

Now it seems assured. But at a price. The Soviets have scored a smashing propaganda victory by forcing the conference. The United States practically had to be dragged into it.

It remains to be seen—after the results are known—whether the conference turns out to be a farce and this country was right in its reluctance to meet with Premier Khrushchev.

There is no exact parallel in history for these past seven months.

They produced a shower of letters between President Eisenhower and Khrushchev, hairsplittings, and the kind of progress that never, until now, amounted to anything except one step forward and one step back. In short; nothing.

The Soviets started it last December with a letter to Eisenhower, proposing a meeting at the top. The administration thought it could brush it off by letting a press officer dismiss it as propaganda before the State Department released a translation of the Soviet note.

This cavalier treatment didn't work. Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles were quickly shaken out of that attitude by the reaction of American allies who wanted much more serious attention given the Soviet proposal.

Nevertheless, Eisenhower and Dulles dallied about answering it, giving the Soviets almost a solid month in which to parade before the world as unanswering peace-lovers.

And before Eisenhower finally got off his reply to the first Soviet note, the Soviets sent another. Even Dulles by then indicated the Soviets were beating us in propaganda. The administration decided to be a little quicker in the future.

Then began the rain of letters, with the Soviets urging haste and Eisenhower taking the position there should not be a summit meeting until there had been adequate preparation for it and all sides agreed thoroughly on what they'd discuss.

Without such preparation, of course, a summit meeting could turn into a shooting gallery. But the whole idea seemed to collapse last month when the Soviets suddenly broke off negotiations with Western ambassadors in Moscow on preparations for a summit get-together.

Coal rationing, which was started away back in the early days of World War II, has just been ended by the British government. This being July nobody probably noticed it.

Alaska's first political campaign as a state may be a hot one, we read. And what could be more welcome in that frigid area?

On the market is a wastebasket that has a removable bottom. Probably the invention of some practical joker.

The top ranking student in a Traverse City, Mich., school will be given the post of official bell ringer for the institution. Getting the right to get down to the old daily grind ahead of everybody else—THAT'S a reward?

Now you can get a fly-swatter that perfumes the air as you swing it. Even if you miss the pesky target, it's an improvement.

Politicians who constantly straddle the issues eventually find out that a hedge makes a poor political fence.

Those Los Angeles Dodgers have been hanging around last place in the National league so long, the rest of the circuit must regard 'em as aborigines in the Land Down Under.

together.

They did this at a time when—for a reason still incomprehensible—they abruptly turned tough in all directions. For a time, they appeared not to care what the rest of the world thought. Whatever propaganda gains they had made were suddenly being thrown away.

But Khrushchev saw a new and golden chance to score on the West—and took advantage of it fast—when American troops were sent into Lebanon and British troops into Jordan at the request of the heads of government of both countries.

Khrushchev moved fast, but not in haste. The American troops went in July 15. Khrushchev waited until July 19 before issuing another call for a summit meeting.

World's Best Home Planner Said To Be the Housewife

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor Sara Little is a pint-size career girl who is all steamed up about the hard life of the American housewife.

Sara is an industrial designer who spent 15 years as an editor of a national home furnishings magazine.

"Builders, architects and appliance manufacturers are making suckers of American housewives," she says. "They get things all prettied up, so they will look good in color pictures, and forget about the poor woman who is going to have to live and work in their dream house."

"The classic example, of course, is the picture window that faces the street. For several years, every split-level ranch house in the country had to have a picture window, whether there was any picture to look at or not. People moved into the houses and put a lamp in the window to make it look pretty. Then they realized the whole world passing by could look in at the window, and privacy was just another word."

They hung curtains to cover the picture window, and there they were—right back where they started from.

"Then take kitchens. The American kitchen is supposed to be the world's peak achievement in modern convenience and beauty. Millions are spent every year on its research and design. So what do we get? Well, we get those cute separate ovens set into the wall, often half a room away from the rest of the cooking area. We get burners set in counter tops, and sometimes no space to set a mixing bowl."

Sara believes that the world's best home planner is the housewife herself, who knows how she wants her home arranged for ultimate comfort and ease.

Faisal's Estate Said $74,253

LONDON (AP)—King Faisal of Iraq, slain in the revolt that overthrew his government 10 days ago, left an estate in England tentatively valued at 26,870 pounds—$74,253—the British public trustee said Thursday.

A spokesman declined to say what the estate consisted of.

Who inherits the estate is in doubt. Most of the Iraqi royal family was killed along with Faisal.

Couple Is Accused In Child Beating Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Beauford Wynn, 24, and his wife, Rebecca, 29, were bound over to the grand jury Thursday under $10,000 bonds after they pleaded innocent to a manslaughter charge in the fatal beating of Bessie Colvin, 4. The Wynns had taken the child from Alabama last February to live with them. The girl died Monday about 24 hours after her last beating, detectives said.

TOO YOUNG—Eugenia Maria Valverde, Miss Costa Rica, has been barred from competition at the Miss Universe contest in Long Beach, Calif., because of her age. She is only 17 and entrants must be 18. She said she was unaware of the ruling.

Pittsburgh Area Welcomes Priest, Prisoner of Reds

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Rev. Cyril Wagner is back home today after a five-year imprisonment in Red China.

The slender Franciscan priest, ill with asthma and tired from his long journey which started in Shanghai last month, returned to Pittsburgh Thursday night.

Some 25 relatives met him as he stepped from an airliner. An unidentified man approached the Roman Catholic priest and said: "Let a good Protestant shake your hand, father."

Newsmen questioned the 52-year-old priest, a native of nearby Sharpsburg, as he stood under an umbrella in the rain.

Father Wagner said his Commu- nist captors mistreated him phys- ically and mentally. He described the people of China as "warm and lovable."

Young Executives Told Big Chance May Come Soon

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—The young executive with talent won't have to wait so long in the future for the chance to become boss.

Four corporation presidents agreed on this in a Stanford busi- ness conference panel discussion Wednesday. They said the policy of giving top management re- sponsibility to younger men is spreading in U. S. business.

The panelists were S. Clark Beise, of the Bank of America; A. B. Layton of Crown-Zellerbach; F. B. Whiteman, Western Pacific Railroad; and David Packard, Hewlett-Packard.

"It used to be you waited for the boss to die," said Layton. "Now compulsory retirement at 65 is generally accepted practice."

$191 Million in U. S. Funds Given to Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio received $191,767,210 in federal year that ended June 30, or nearly grants during the bookkeeping year that ended June 30, or nearly 13½ per cent of the state's total 12-month income. State Auditor James A. Rhodes said Thursday that was 72 million dollars more than Ohio received in federal grants during the bookkeeping year. Most of the money went to aid for the aged and highway pro- grams, Rhodes said.

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

Do you remember when wheat fields contained one to a half dozen sizeable ricks of sheaf wheat awaiting the neighborhood threshing outfit?

And how the separator was placed at the side of a rick, or more often between two ricks for the "set" while the threshing was done!

That was in the earlier days before threshing outfits became more numerous and before combines had been thought of.

It was a real feat to stack or rick sheaf wheat properly, so the rick would be symmetrical and the sheaves would not slip out and very important, so it would turn water. In some instances the ricks stood for two months or longer before the threshing outfit reached them.

As a youngster I helped build many ricks of wheat and then help the sheaf firmly.

It was important to keep the butt ends of the wheat straws outward so the heads would be protected from rain. It was also important that the sheaves be "bound" or held in place by another sheaf laid in the same direction and holding the sheaf in place.

Circles of sheaves were laid, each layer being bound by the suc- ceeding layer and as the rick neared completion it was tapered in at the sides until only a few feet wide when the caps sheaves were laid.

The ricked wheat went through a "sweat" and could not be threshed until the "sweat" had dried away.

When threshing time came one and sometimes two men with pitchforks, took their places on top of the ricks and by some expert pitching forked the sheaves down upon the platforms on each side of the cylinder, where the bands were cut by men with pocket knives. A man fed the loose sheaves into the droning cylinder. The fast revolving "teeth" shat- tered the grains free of the heads allowing them to drop upon screens below and the straw shorn of the grain, passed over a series of shak- ing griddles until it reached the rear part of the separator. Then it was carried up a long "stack- er" by an endless chain of cleats, or, in later years passed into a "blower" which blew the straw up on the straw pile.

Usually the pipe rotated so a straw pile was built in a crescent shape and a moveable hood on the end of the blower pipe was re- gulated to determine the width of the strawpile.

CORN GROWING FAST

Not in years have I seen corn grow as fast as it has recently, and while corn "knee high the Fourth of July" used to be the rule this year found some of it shoulder high.

In fact 15 days ago I saw corn eight feet in height, tasseled out and with sizeable ears forming. However that was in the neigh- boring county of Ross in Deer Creek Valley where the corn was planted early.

The wet weather has caused ex- tensive damage in some places where drainage was inadequate, but the rain coupled with warm weather, did much to force the corn into unusually rapid growth.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Wheat harvest, delayed by rains, was nearing the end, and yields of 30 to 40 bushels were reported.

Two convicts were wounded in a Penitentiary escape effort, and six bombs were found in their posses- sion.

The work of dredging Ratle- snake channel was delayed by high water.

Dial phones were cut over in Jeffersonville, Bloomington and New Holland.

"Wrong Way" Corrigan was hon- ored in Ireland for his notable flight across the Atlantic.

A record amount of wheat was being held in the county, due to drop in prices and large yields.

A horseshoe pitching tournament, sponsored by YMCA was under way here.

The government allocated $153,000 for new school buildings here, providing city issue $187,000 bonds for the remainder of the cost.

Chakeres and Son, Springfield, leased the Roxy Theater here from Einar Jensen.

R. H. Kroger, 78, Cincinnati, founder of the Kroger Stores died suddenly.

S. E. Irwin, last charter mem- ber of Christian Church here, died at 77.

A truck driver moved down 16 mail boxes Route 35 south, appar- ently while drunk.

Work on the Rock Bridge, Creek Rd., was halted by high water. It was a WPA project.

Congressman Clarence J. Brown addressed the Rotary Club here.

Community Players To Meet on Sunday

The Community Players — the Little Theater group which staged the comedy, "His and Hers," last spring — are to meet at 8 p. m. Sunday in the Cherry Hotel to lay plan. for the coming season.

High on the agenda for the meeting is a discussion of the group's next production, Mrs. William Lawyer, who will direct it, said.

She indicated that not only will the play selected for staging Oct. 13 and 14 be announced, but that also the times and places for try- outs for parts in it be set at the Sunday night meeting.

Mrs. Lawyer emphasized that this meeting is for all members of the Community Players group and anyone else interested in joining it. She commented that she hopes "everyone will be there, because there are so many things to be done and we should be getting started."

The board of directors is to meet at 7:30 p. m. for a short session before the start of the gen- eral meeting.

ALL THE SINUOUS excitement of silk is inherent in this tunic chemise by Karen Stark of Harvey Berin. Drooping straight from a "cat's cradle" neckline to just above the knees, and underscored by the same band-and-bow decor that adorns the bodice, it overhangs a narrow, newly-tapered underskirt.

Syrian Communists Battling Nasser

BEIRUT (AP)—Returning travelers say the Communists have come into open conflict with President Nasser's forces in Aleppo, northern Syria.

The informants said the Reds organized "volunteer bands" of 30 each to shout "Down with Nasser" in public places. When they began shouting near the officers' club, more than 200 were arrested. Since the Syrian-Egyptian union in February, Aleppo has had an economic slump and the Communists are trying to blame it on Nasser. A bad crop this year caused a general drop in buying power.

Swindler Claims Young Woman Knew About His Actions

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—John J. Tobin Jr. says Miss Lucy Diorio, 28, knew he was going to file a fake accident claim in the series of embezzlements which by last January had reached a total of about $185,000.

Tobin, once an insurance company adjuster, is serving a term in Ohio Penitentiary on his plea of guilty to the swindle. He was brought back here Thursday as a state witness in the trial of Miss Diorio. She contends she did not know Tobin was going to file a claim for $8,394.

But Tobin said she knew about the fake and knew she was going to benefit by it.

The estimate of the total embezzled by Tobin and his cohorts was made from the witness stand by Thomas D. McDonough, vice president of Tobin's former company, American Associated Insurance. Unofficial estimates had run as high as a quarter of a million dollars.

THE WASHINGTON HIGH

Midway Memos

By RON COFFMAN
Except for the brief pre-noon showers, Thursday was by far the best day, weather-wise, at the Fair. The glowing sunshine upped both temperatures and spirits, and many Fayette County folk who had previously shied away because of the inclement weather conditions were in attendance.

A LITTLE-MENTIONED but vitally important part of the Fair is the first-aid tent, located adjacent to the secretary's office, just back of the grandstand. The tent, staffed by volunteer workers from the Fayette County Professional Nurses Assn., and members of the local Civil Defense unit, is operated from 2 p. m. until 10 p. m., giving emergency first-aid to all who require it.

Mrs. John Richard, president of the nurses organization, is in charge of the tent's operation, as this is the first year the nurses and CD workers have carried the full load of work.

The tent's services have not been in demand by Fair-goers or exhibitors but you can never tell.

WHAT DOES A Greenfield Student think of this year's Fayette County Fair? We put this query to Miss Carolyn Carson, a senior at McClain High School, Greenfield, Highland County.

"It's wonderful!" Carolyn replied with an enthusiasm. "I've been here two times already, and I'm planning to come back tomorrow. I like it very much."

Carolyn not only came to see the Fair, she came to participate, and did rather well, too. Miss Carson was awarded second prize in the "dress-up dress" category of the Junior Fair's clothing show, and exhibited in other areas of competition throughout the Fair.

THE CONCESSIONS, the tell-tale point of a Fair's financial success or failure, are giving every indication that this year's exhibition will be a profitable one. Reports filed at Fair Secretary S. W. Fennig's office show that the income from these concessions is running well ahead of last year's figures for the same number of days of operation, with the chance for even greater profits in sight now that the bad weather has given way to warm sunshine.

A contributing factor in this financial picture was thought by Fair officials to be the lack of a grandstand show Tuesday night on the cancellation of Wednesday's harness races. These forced Fair-goers to remain on the midway, where the bulk of the concessions are located.

THE WASHINGTON HIGH

In Cadence, Toot!

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—A diesel locomotive stole the show at Richmond's Armed Forces parade. The parade was crossing the Belt Line bridge when the train rounded the bend and the engineer began to sound his horn in marching time—toot—toot, toot, toot, toot—until the train disappeared.

SCHOOL band was forced to abandon its afternoon performance shortly after the playing of the National Anthem, due to the precipitation which fell for a few minutes in the early afternoon. The band, which normally performs between races, was seated in a partially uncovered pavilion, and Director Robert Neumann ordered the members of his group to shelter before damage was done to their instruments or to the bandmen themselves.

The races, however, went on as scheduled, and the weather finally cooperated by presenting the racegoers with a warm, sunshine-filled afternoon.

TONIGHT AT 8:15, the famous Midwestern Hayride will present its only Fayette County performance in front of the grandstand. Many of the TV stars who have come to be favorites of both Ohio and all of the Midwest will take part in the show, which features country and Western music and dancing, as well as many other types of entertainment.

Tomorrow evening, the grunt-and-groan artists will perform the square ring as be erected on the track in front of the grandstand. The first bell sounds at approximately 8:15, and the wrestlers take over from there.

God's Gift is Flowers
The traditional way to say "with sympathy" is to say it with flowers. Through the centuries men have turned to this blessed way of expressing their tenderest thoughts to friends and dear ones.
Those left behind will never forget the beautiful memory picture your thoughtfulness helps to create. And in years to come, you gain rich satisfaction in having contributed to the silent sermon on everlasting life that flowers add to this sacred occasion.

London Styles Hike Waist

LONDON (AP)—There was nothing subtle today about where London's master stylists have placed the new autumn season's emphasis in women's clothes. It's on the bosom and the waist.

If either was hiked any higher it'd be on milady's shoulders. Both are so far up that John Cavanagh even calls his sparkling collection "sky high."

There's a big difference, though, in the way bosoms and waists are treated. The waists are covered while the busts are—shall we say—not so covered. Especially for evening.

With skirts above the knees, the legs look as if they start immediately under the bosom.

The new décolletage is so daring it's going to be hard to attract much attention to the waist. But, the bosses of acute couture have tried.

In addition to the high waists, there are diagonal waists, sloping round from a high center in the front to a low back. Or down from a spot just below the shoulder blades to the front.

Queen Elizabeth II's dressmaker, Norman Hartnell, has joined the high, high parade.

It remains to be seen, however, whether her pretty majesty, with one of the best figures in and out of royal circles, will raise her sights for the season.

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—How high is high? How far above the waist, now near the bosom? They are being determined at the Florence fashion shows now that Italian couture has declared itself in favor of the high demarcation line between bodice and skirt. Veneziani, whose collections received ovations Wednesday night, hinged her skirts about the level of the second rib. Skirts are either short or long, with no middle ground between knee and floor.

Mediator Seeks Timken Talks

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Federal Mediator C. R. Turner renewed efforts today to bring negotiators for the Timken Roller Bearing Co. and the United Steelworkers together on a pension contract that would end a strike of nearly 9,000 Timken workers here and in Columbus and Zanesville.

"We'll keep having meetings though, that's the only way to break things down," Turner said after reporting a lack of progress in Thursday's three-hour session.

Turner's first meeting with the parties in the dispute was Wednesday, when a walkout of union members began at the four Timken plants here. Union spokesmen said it was sparked by a speedup resulting from the company's efforts to truck materials out of the plant and to Timken plants where the United Steelworkers do not have representation rights.

The strike then spread to the Columbus and Zanesville plants, shutting those down. But the little Wooster plant continued working at about 75 per cent of capacity, plant Manager Walter Springer said.

The union does not have all Wooster plant employees as members, and Springer said those who were working included both union and non-union employees. The missing 25 per cent, he explained, had been laid off because of the recession.

No violence was reported, and picketing at plant gates in the three cities was peaceful. However, Timken posted a $10,000 reward for information leading to conviction of anyone who harms person or property because of the strike.

The union's 6,000 members here will meet at 10 a.m. Saturday to discuss the strike issues. About 2,000 Columbus plant workers will meet at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, and a meeting will be held at the same hour in Wooster. The Zanesville plant workers are to meet at 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

Atlas Missile Makeup Revealed

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (AP)—New facts have been disclosed about the Air Force's powerful Atlas missile.

The missile's propulsion system is a cluster of liquid-propellant rocket engines, the Air Force said Wednesday. It consists of a twin-chambered booster engine which sends the Atlas to the edge of space, a sustainer engine which keeps it on course at high altitudes and two small stabilizing engines to control roll.

The thrust power of the system, designed and developed by Rocketdyne, a division of North American Aviation, Inc., was not disclosed.

Verkhovansk, 92 degrees north of the Arctic Circle, is the world's coldest inhabited place. It has had a recorded temperature of 97.6 degrees below zero. It was once, and still may be, a Russian exile center.

Soundproof Experts Still Baffled by Ordinary Snore

LONDON (AP)—Thousands are being spent to bring quiet to hospital wards, but the snore still baffles the experts.

Wards are soundproofed. Trolleys stopped from squeaking. Nurses wear noiseless shoes.

"This is a most acute problem," the King Edward Hospital Charity Fund said in its annual report.

Hospitals tried putting snorers together in special wards. They woke each other.

Separate cubicles were tried. The snorers sounded even louder.

The next experiment will be with soundproof curtains, noise-absorbing tiles and beds that keep patients on their sides while they sleep.

Cancer Probability Statistics Given By Health Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—There is a probability that one in every four females and one in every five males born in 1950 and living in the United States will develop cancer, according to a new study released by the Public Health Service.

The service said the probability of dying of cancer was one in eight for males and one in seven for females.

Since 1937, cancer has been the second leading cause of death in this country. In 1954 there were 146 cancer deaths per 100,000 population. That was second only to the 348 deaths per 100,000 from heart disease.

It was found that cancer mortality rises with age for both men and women, but that the probability of dying of cancer begins to decline after age 35 for women and age 55 for men.

Cancer of the digestive system accounts for the greatest proportion of cancer deaths in each sex.

Auto Show Canceled; Expenses 'Too High'

CLEVELAND (AP)—Directors of the Cleveland Automobile Dealers Assn. voted Thursday to cancel plans for an automobile show here in November. The organization's executive secretary, Earl Burrows, said expenses of setting up the show would be high, and it was difficult to determine the dates on which 1959 models would be introduced.

Three Stakes Feature First Day of Fair Races

Two Spills, Not Serious, Mar Card

Big fields, three OCRA stakes with $1,000 added, good time over a track that was almost fast, close finishes and a couple of spills marked the first day of harness horse racing of the Fair here Thursday.

There were 11 one-mile dashes on the afternoon's program. Post time was advanced to 1 p. m. Post time on other days is 2 p. m.

The crowd nearly filled the old grandstand and lined the fence around most of the track. It was not as big as some Thursday crowds, but Fair officials considered it "very good" in view of the low hanging canopy of clouds with a threat of rain.

The first day's program had to be called off Wednesday, when Tuesday's downpour left the track a sea of mud that did not dry out completely for two days. Incidentally, the track here is considered one of the best drained in these parts.

Both of the OCRA stakes for two-year-olds were won in straight dashes.

THE ONE for 3-year-old pacers, with a $1,510 purse, was won by Elma B from Belle Air Farm of Washington C. H., who was on top all the way to take the first dash in 2:06.3, but was beaten out by a length by Willett, owned by Wayne Galvin of Wilmington, in a stretch drive in the second dash, going the mile in 2:09.2.

Willett finished third in the first dash after having been impeded momentarily when Cash Book fell going into the first turn right after the start.

Cash Book came back for the second dash and finished third. J. Lighthill, his driver, was not injured.

THE $1,880 OCRA stake for 2-year-old pacers, which was carried over from Wednesday's rained out program, was raced in two divisions on the elimination plan. There were eight in the first division and seven in the second, after one colt had been scratched from each. The first five in each division in the first dashes came back to make up the 10-colt field for the final, and deciding dash.

T. D. Adios, driven by Forrest Short, came from third position in the stretch to win the first division dash going away in 2:09.3.

Vineddy, driven by Dud Moon of Washington C. H., went right to the top and stayed to win the second division qualifying dash in 2:11.2.

Going the same kind of race in the final, T. D. Adios came from fourth place to win the major share of the $1,880 stake in 2:09.2.

EMBASSY SUE won both dashes of the $1,570 OCRA stake for 2-year-old trotters after coming from the two hole to take the first dash in 2:14 and going all the way in front to take the second in 2:13.2. Quality Girl was second in both dashes and Lira third.

Embassy Sue paid $9.80 to win the first dash, but being in the field with Quality Girl in the betting, the return for place in the mutuels was a whopping — and surprising — $29.40 on each.

The 30 class trot, which drew a total of 18 horses, was raced in two divisions of nine horses each. The original purse of $800 for this overnight event was increased to $1,200 to make a pot of $600 for each division.

This race provided a field day for the mutual bettors; five payoffs on three of the four dashes was more than $17 for $2.

EVELYN COUNSEL won both ends of the first division. She came from far back to win the first dash in a photo finish and paid the juicy odds of $21.80, $6.40 and $3.80. She convinced the crowd that the win was no fluke, because, she not only won it easily but returned only $3.80, $3 and $2.40 in the mutuels.

Velma Frisco won the first dash of the second division in a blanket finish with three other horses to pay $18.40, $7.20 and $3.80.

Mose Abbe finished second to provide another fat mutuel payoff — $18.60 to place and $5.60 to show.

The first dash was marred by the second spill of the afternoon. Jeffrey fell in front of the grandstand as the field of nine was leaving the starting gate. Unable to get him unhitched immediately, he was held down until after the other eight horses had passed the grandstand on the first lap. He was on his feet at the finish, but still on the track about where he fell.

O. O. Reidling, his owner and driver, was not seriously hurt and both came back for the second dash and finished last.

Golden Rose, owned and driven by Wendell Kirk of Washington C. H., which finished last in the first dash came from behind to win the second dash by a nose from Velma Frisco and return his mutual backers $23.80 to win, $17.40 to place and $4.80 to show.

Controversial Yank Pitcher Finally Tastes of Beanball

(By The Associated Press)

Ryne Duren, the New York Yankees' ace reliever, finally has been plunked.

A pitch by Paul Foytack felled the controversial rookie, frequently accused of throwing at batters, in the Yankees' 10-7 victory at Detroit Thursday. He apparently wasn't seriously injured—just a bruised and cut left cheek—but he'll stay in a hospital for several days for observation.

Duren's mates call him Mr. Magoo. Casey Stengel calls him "my blind man."

The rest of the American League calls the big right-hander with the thick specs less humorous things. They say he zeroes in before rifling his high, hard and inside stuff. Duren denies he deliberately throws at anyone. He's hit two.

The pitch from Foytack, who also throws hard, came on a two-strike, no-ball count in the ninth, after the Tigers had blown a 5-0 lead. Duren had worked two innings of perfect relief, dunking slugger Al Kaline with his first pitch.

The Yankees, blanked for six innings on one hit by Jim (No-Hit) Bunning, left Detroit for Cleveland with a three-game sweep and a 13½-game lead, their largest yet.

Baltimore whipped the Chicago White Sox 7-3 and moved within two games of second-place Boston, rained out at Kansas City. Cleveland smacked Washington 6-1.

Rookie Milt Pappas hit his first pro homer and won his seventh for the Orioles, giving up only five hits, but walking six. Jim Wilson (7-8) lost it. Bob Nieman hit a two-run homer for the Birds, who had 12 hits.

Gary Bell, another rookie right-hander, allowed Washington only four hits for a 4-4 record. The Nats had but one hit for six, Ken Aspromonte's third-inning homer. Russ Nixon had four hits, one a homer, and drove in four runs—a two-day total of seven—for the Tribe.

It is that really just a two-team race in the National League. Or trophy went to Trader Horn, which took the second heat in better time than Darn Safe's first heat victory. Trader Horn's time was 2:01 4/5 compared with 2:03 by Darn Safe for the two trips around the half-mile track.

The second heat result broke a winning streak of seven races for Darn Safe. It was the first win this season for Trader Horn.

Flashes Win First Round Of Little League Play

With no-hit pitching by Bill Henderson, the Record-Herald Flashes topped the first round championship of the Little League from the Mac Dews Realtors, 7 to 3, at Wilson Field Thursday night.

The championship game had been rained out twice before it finally was played.

Henderson hurled his second straight no-hitter for the Flashes. He set down 14 batters on strikes, but issued seven walks.

Matson, B. Marting, Cummings and Armbrust all batted out doubles for the winners. Henderson helped his own cause by collecting two hits.

The Flashes broke the game wide open in the fifth inning with five runs.

The Realtors tallied one run in the first and two in the sixth. They got them by combining seven walks and two errors by the Flashes.

Roaring Yanks To Play 4 With Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — Fresh from crushing the Detroit Tigers three straight and riding a five-game winning string, the New York Yankees open a four-game now sixth-place Cleveland Indians, series here tonight against the now sixth-place Cleveland Indians.

By winning their third in a row from last-place Washington Thursday 6-1, the Tribe moved ahead of Detroit and to within a game and a half of the last rung in the first division, now occupied by Kansas City.

Whitey Ford (12-4) will be the Yankee pitcher as the Bronx Bombers seek to keep their slate clean of losses in Cleveland Stadium. They have won five here so far this year. And in New York two weeks ago they won four out of five games in the first series since Joe Gordon became Tribe manager.

Ray Narleski, who hasn't pitched since he lost one of that series in New York, will be out tonight after his 11th victory against seven losses. He has been sidelined by illness.

Battery mates Gary Bell, pitching, and Russ Nixon, catching, were the big noise in Cleveland's triumph Thursday.

Bell (4-4) put the Nationals down on three hits: a second-inning homer by Ken Aspromonte, a seventh-inning single by Ed Fitzgerald, and an eighth-inning single by Ossie Alvarez.

Nixon pretty much nailed down his claim to the first-string catching job by hitting a home run, a double and two singles, and driving in four runs. Wednesday he accounted for three runs batted in with a home run and double.

'Tremendous' Show and Sale

Champion Market Hog Sells for $1 a Pound

The 215 market hogs that were sold at auction at the Fair Thursday afternoon brought a total of $212,688.24.

The sale, which followed the show, included market hogs entered in both the Junior Fair Show and the open classes by adults.

Both the shows and the combined sale were described as "tremendous... better than we had hoped for" by Fair directors, exhibitors and members of the Fayette County Swine Producers Assn., which co-operated with the Fair Board in developing the market hog show and sale.

Indicative of the "tremendousness" of the sale was the $1 a pound paid for the 215 pound grand champion or the Junior Show by Sam M. Martin, head of the French Feedlot Equipment Co. The $215 went to David McKee, its owner, along with the trophy presented by the A. B. C. Stockyards. Top price last year was 76 cents a pound.

Becky Warner's 205 pound reserve champion brought 81 cents a pound on a bid by the Kroger Co. She also was presented the Producers Stockyards trophy.

The grand champion pen of three entered by Ronnie Warner brought 41 cents a pound and the Milledgeville Bank of Jeffersonville trophy. The three weighed a total of 590 pounds and were bought by Anderson's Drive-In Restaurant.

The reserve champion pen of three, owned by David McKee, was bought by The Eshelman Feed Co. for 40 cents a pound. There was no trophy.

All of these were from the Junior Fair Show.

The grand champion pen of three from the open show, entered by Roy and A. R. Rankin, was bought by the Union Stockyards for 37 cents a pound. They weighed a total of 595 pounds. The trophy was presented to the Rankins by the Fayette County Farm Bureau Co-operative Assn.

The owners, weights, price per pound and buyers of the other hogs were:

Ronnie Warner, 200 lbs., 39 cents by Wirthmore Feeds;
Joyce Cannon, 210 lbs., 39 cents, by Union Stockyards;
Marvin Carr, 215 lbs., 38 cents, by Bob Riley, Standard Oil;

GOP Leaders Meet Saturday

Rally, Highway Vacancy on Agenda

Preliminary plans for a major Republican get-together on the Fayette County Fairground Aug. 14 will be made Saturday when members of the county's Central and Executive committees meet at 8 p. m. in the private dining room at Anderson's Restaurant.

Otis B. Core who heads both party committees, said that Gov. C. William O'Neill, Elmer Barrett, Chillicothe, candidate for Congress from the Sixth District and other state and local candidates are expected to attend the rally.

Local committee members also will make plans for a delegation to the Ohio Republican Convention and will discuss recommendation and endorsement of a candidate or candidates for the position of county superintendent of state highways.

This post has been vacant since the recent death of Robert Haines. The committee's views on a successor will go to Frank W. Williams, Delaware, Division 6 superintendent of Highways.

Bow and Arrow Used In Lebanese Fighting

BEIRUT (AP)—A weapon of bygone wars—the bow and arrow—has come back into use in the Lebanese rebellion. But now it has a modern warhead.

The rebels are shooting cone-snapped dynamite charges into government positions with ordinary bows.

The unorthodox weapon was displayed by a rebel officer. A dynamite charge was attached to a heavy arrow. As soon as the fuse is lit, the arrow aims the arrow on a steep trajectory, timing it to explode just before hitting the ground up to 100 yards away.
